

James Crawford Quinlan

e: quinlanjc@vcu.edu

p: 267-884-6019

Skills

- Highly experienced with Adobe Photoshop
- Ability to code using HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, PHP, Git
- Familiarity with Python and Java
- Up-to-date with latest web design best practices and frameworks
- Understanding of Adobe Illustrator and Adobe InDesign

Education

- Currently attending Virginia Commonwealth University, School of the Arts for a BFA in Film and Photography, Class of 2016
  - GPA: 3.69
- Graduated from Central Bucks High School West 2012

Work Experience

- Web Design Intern with Mind Your Design Current
  - Currently building numerous websites for a variety of clients
- Freelance Web Designer / Developer Current
  - Independently designing and building responsive websites for clients
- Web Design Intern with Capital One 2015
  - Redesigned Capital One's IRIS program used by call center employees
- Web Design Intern with RTS Labs 2014
  - Designed web-based application for the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts

Volunteer Experience

- Photographer for Help-Portrait RVA 2014
  - Took family portraits for local in-need families
- Counselor for Neighborhood Notes 2011
  - Aided at-risk youth in learning to paint, draw, and sculpt

Awards

- VCUarts Outstanding Photography and Film Sophomore 2014
- Virginia Commonwealth University Dean's List 2012, 2013, 2014
- Doylestown Art League Student Art Award and Scholarship 2012

References and portfolio available upon request.